

Notice of Postponement of inter airport China 2020

Dear Exhibitors, Visitors and Partners:

Thank you for your support for inter airport China 2020!

On June 16th, and due to the new breakout of COVID-19 cases in Beijing, the Beijing Municipal Authority announced the upgrade of the Epidemic prevention level to level II and therefore restricting all mass gatherings of more than 100 attendees.

To ensure the health and safety of our exhibitors, visitors, partners and all involved in our exhibition, and in line with the most recent guidance from the government and relevant authorities, we have taken the decision to postpone our event:

inter airport China 2020
will be rescheduled to October 28-30, 2020,
to be held at the Shanghai New International Expo Center.

We apologize for the inconvenience caused by this postponement.

inter airport China is committed to presenting advanced equipment and innovative technology solutions to the airport industry in China. We will ensure that we deliver excellent content and bring you a productive industry event in Shanghai in October.

In the meantime, our team will continue to closely monitor the latest epidemic information and remain closely connected to our industry partners and the government and relevant public health and local authorities.

We look forward to seeing you on Oct.28-30 in Shanghai. For more information, please follow our official website and WeChat account.
